We're Ready to Care For Your Patients

At the VNA & Hospice of the Southwest Region, we are working to keep your patients safe during this uncertain time.

We have been working in collaboration with health care providers in the communities we serve and diligently to adhering to the recommendations from the CDC.

Here's how we are working to protect your patients:

- Every patient is screened over the phone from the point of intake to each home visit to determine if they are experiencing any symptoms of COVID-19 virus.
- Our employees are taking universal precautions when visiting with patients and may wear masks when working with patients.
- Our employees are told to stay home if they are demonstrating any symptoms of illness.

We're in this together

We know this is an uncertain time and we want to assure you that patient and staff safety is our number one priority.

Ready to go!

At the VNA & Hospice of the Southwest Region we are available and ready to jump into action to help those who need care. Just one call and we will be there to serve.
