

Vermont Advance Directive for Health Care

— LONG FORM —

Prepared by the Vermont Ethics Network

EXPLANATION AND INSTRUCTIONS

An Advance Directive is a document you prepare to choose someone as your health care agent or to guide others to make health decisions for you. An advance directive can include instructions about your health care as well as what should happen with your body after you die. Having an Advance Directive helps when you no longer can or no longer wish to make your own decisions. As you begin your Advance Directive, here are some important things to know:

- You have the right to consent to or refuse any medical treatment.
- You have the right to appoint an agent to make decisions for you.
- You may use this Advance Directive to share your wishes in advance.
- You may fill out all Parts of this Advance Directive form or just portions of it. For example, you can just appoint an agent in Part 1 and then sign Part 9. If you choose not to appoint an agent, you can skip part 1 and just give instructions in other Parts that you wish to fill out. However, if you fill out any Part of this document, you must also fill out Part 9, as it provides signatures and witnesses to validate the Advance Directive.
- You may use any Advance Directive form or format as long as it is properly signed and witnessed.
- You can revoke or suspend your Advance Directive at any time unless you expressly waive your right to do so.

Everyone could benefit from having an Advance Directive — not just those anticipating the end of their lives. Any of us could have an accident or suffer from an unexpected medical condition. Some of us live with a mental or physical illness that leaves us without capacity at times. Without an Advance Directive, those making decisions for you will not know what your wishes are. Worse still, your family and friends could fight over the care you should get. Help them help you — fill out and sign an Advance Directive.

This Advance Directive has 9 Parts. Fill out as few or as many Parts as you like today. If you want, you can fill out other Parts another day. This is your document: change it as you like so that it states your wishes in your own words. You may cross out what you don't like and add what you want. This form was proposed as an optional model form by the Vermont Department of Health and adopted by the Legislative Committee on Administrative Rules.

Note: For copying and storing purposes only the actual form pages, not the instructions, have consecutive page numbers. When sending copies, you need send only the numbered pages of the form itself.

Updating your Advance Directive

It is very important that the information in your Advance Directive is always current. Review it once a year or when events in your life change. Consider the “5 D’s” as times when your Advance Directive might need to be changed or updated. The 5 D’s are: Decade birthday, Diagnosis, Deterioration, Divorce or Death of somebody close to you or that affects you. All of these events may affect how you think about future health care decisions for yourself.

Whenever necessary, you should also update addresses and contact information for your agent and alternate agent and other people such as potential medical guardians whom you may have identified in your Advance Directive.

Revoking or Suspending your Advance Directive

You may revoke your Advance Directive by completing a new Advance Directive or completing replacement Parts of this Advance Directive. Then the old Advance Directive or Part is no longer in effect and the new one replaces it. If the new one and the old one cover different subjects, then both will be in effect.

Suspending an Advance Directive is when you want a provision to not be in effect for a period of time. For example, you may have said you wanted a DNR order and the order may have been given to you. Then you need to go in for surgery and want the understanding that you will be revived during surgery if your heart stops.

You may revoke or suspend all or part of your Advance Directive by doing any of the following things:

1. Signing a statement suspending or revoking the designation of your agent;
2. Personally informing your doctor and having him or her note that on your record;
3. Burning, tearing, or obliterating the Advance Directive either personally or at your direction when you are present; or
4. For any provision (other than designation of your agent), stating orally or in writing, or indicating by any other act of yours that your intent is to suspend or revoke any Part or statement contained in your Advance Directive.

Appointment of My Health Care Agent

Appointing an agent to make decisions for you may be the single most important part of your Advance Directive. Your agent must be at least 18 years old and should be someone you know and trust. The person you choose should be someone who can make decisions for you, based upon your wishes and values. You cannot appoint your doctor or other health care clinician to be your agent. If you are in a nursing home or residential care facility, staff or owners cannot be your agents unless they are related to you. You can appoint an alternate agent to make decisions for you if your original agent is unavailable, unable, or unwilling to act for you. You can also appoint co-agents if you wish. (If you appoint co-agents, use the second page of Part 1 of this form.)

The authority of your agent to make decisions for you can begin:

- when you no longer have the capacity to make decisions for yourself, such as when you are unconscious or cannot communicate, or
- immediately upon signing the advance directive if you so specify, or
- when a condition you specify is met, such as a diagnosis of a debilitating disease such as Alzheimer's Disease or serious mental illness, or
- when an event occurs that you want to mark the start of your agent's authority, such as when you move to a nursing home or other institution.

The authority of your agent will end when you regain capacity to make your own decisions or you may specify when you want your Advance Directive to be no longer in effect.

Once your Advance Directive goes into effect, your agent will have access to all your medical records and to persons providing your care. Unless you state otherwise in written instructions, your agent will have the same authority to make all decisions about your health care as you have.

Your agent will be obligated to follow your instructions when making decisions on your behalf to the extent that they apply. If you choose not to leave explicit written directions in other Parts of your Advance Directive, the persons making health care decisions for you will be guided by knowledge of your values and what is in your best interest at the time treatment is needed.

Appointment of “co-agents”

You can appoint co-agents — people you ask to make decisions for you, acting together, based upon a discussion of your circumstance and agreement on a course of action or treatment. Sometimes co-agents have difficulty making decisions together. Before completing this part, be sure this is the best choice for you and your co-agents.

Not all of the people you ask to be co-agents may be readily available to speak for you or to make decisions that have to be made immediately, particularly in an emergency. For this reason, it is a good idea to give additional directions about how decisions can be made by your co-agents.

5. Co-agents I appoint are:

Name: Relationship (optional):

Address:

Phone (specify work, home or cell):

(repeat below for additional co-agents)

6. I prefer that decisions made by the co-agents named above be made in the following way (you may choose one, or prioritize 1, 2, 3):

by agreement of all co-agents by a majority of those present, or by the first person available, if it is an emergency.

7. Other Instructions for co-agents (optional):

Others who may be involved in my care.

Part 2 is where you can list your current doctor or clinician with address and phone number. This will help by identifying someone who knows your medical history.

You can also state who else should or should not be consulted about your care.

You can state who is to be given information about your medical condition. This list might include your children, even if they are minors, or your close friends. Hospitals are required to withhold information about your condition from people unless you or your agent gives permission that this can be shared.

You can state who shall not be able to challenge decisions about your care in court actions. Normally any “interested individual” can bring an action in Probate Court regarding decisions made on your behalf. “Interested individuals” are your spouse, adult child, parent, adult sibling, adult grandchild, reciprocal beneficiary, clergy person or any adult who has exhibited special care and concern for you and who is personally familiar with your values. If there is someone in that list that you do not want to be able to bring an action to protect you, you may record the name of that person in Part 2.

Sometimes a court appoints a guardian for a person who is unable to manage aspects of his personal care or financial affairs. You can state a preferred person that you would like the court to appoint if this occurs in the future. That person could be the same person you chose as an agent or it could be someone else. You can also identify persons you would not want appointed as a future guardian for you.

Persons I would not want to be my guardian:

Statement of Values and Goals

Part 3 allows you to state in your own words what is most important to you as you think about medical care you may receive in the future. This will guide your agent and your health care providers and will let them know why you think particular choices are important based upon your own values and beliefs.

If you choose to fill out this Part, you may wish to use the Worksheet 1: Values Questionnaire that is in the Vermont Ethics Network booklet Taking Steps for help in framing and sharing your response.

You may also wish to use Worksheet 2: Medical Situations and Treatment. The second worksheet helps you consider how you might respond to changing circumstances and the changing chances that medical treatment may be successful.

PART 3: STATEMENT OF VALUES AND GOALS

Use the space below to state in your own words what is most important to you.

.... And general advice about how to approach medical choices depending upon your current or future state of health or the chances of success of various treatments.

End of Life Wishes.

Part 4 contains statements that you can use to express either a desire for continued treatment or a desire to limit treatment as death approaches or when you are unconscious and unlikely to regain consciousness.

Part 4 allows you to include other things that may be important to you, such as the type of care you would want and where you hope to receive that care if you are very ill or near the end of your life.

There may be other issues about health care when death is not expected or probable. These treatment issues and choices you can address in Parts 5 and 6 if you wish.

There may be questions about your survival that even doctors cannot predict accurately in your case. It is important to repeat that Part 4 is for those situations where you are not likely to survive or to continue living without life-sustaining treatment on a long-term basis.

NAME _____ DOB _____ DATE _____

PART 4: END-OF-LIFE TREATMENT WISHES

If the time comes when I am close to death or am unconscious and unlikely to become conscious again (choose all that apply):

1. I do want all possible treatments to extend my life.

– or –

2. I do not want my life extended by any of the following means:

breathing machines (ventilator or respirator) tube feeding (feeding and hydration by medical means) antibiotics

other medications whose purpose is to extend my life

any other means

Other (specify) _____

3. I want my agent to decide what treatments I receive, including tube feeding.
4. I want care that preserves my dignity and that provides comfort and relief from symptoms that are bothering me.
5. I want pain medication to be administered to me even though this may have the unintended effect of hastening my death.
6. I want hospice care when it is appropriate in any setting.
7. I would prefer to die at home if this is possible.
8. Other wishes and instructions: (state below or use additional pages):

Other Treatment Wishes.

Part 5 addresses situations which may be temporary, long-term or which may be part of a health crisis that might become life ending for you if no treatment was given or if it was unsuccessful.

You may want to state your wishes regarding a “Do Not Attempt Resuscitation” Order (DNR Order) if your heart were to stop (statement 1). Such an order must be written and signed by your doctor on the Vermont DNR/COLST form. Either the completed written order, or a Vermont DNR identification, needs to be available for any emergency first responders who are called to the scene when your heart stops. It is up to you or your agent to make sure that these additional steps are taken, including having your doctor complete and sign the order and give you either a copy of the order or some other identification.

You may be in a situation in which there is a chance for recovery but, without treatment, you might die. Statement 2 is about allowing a “trial of treatment” in situations like these. This means you want to start treatments that will sustain your life, such as breathing machines or tube feeding, to see if you will recover. If these life sustaining treatments are not successful after a period of time, you give your agent and other care providers permission to stop or withdraw them.

Other statements in this Part concern your wishes about hospitalization and treatment as well as participation in medical student education, or clinical or drug trials as part of your treatment.

There is also a statement about mental health treatment and your preferences concerning types of involuntary treatment.

Statement 9 of this Part concerns specific directions for prescribing and conducting electroconvulsive therapy (ECT) sometimes called “electro-shock” treatment.

If certain statements of Part 5 do not concern or apply to you, do not feel you have to address them. If you have an agent, that person will make decisions for you should the need arise.

NAME _____ DOB _____ DATE _____

PART 5: OTHER TREATMENT WISHES

1. I wish to have a Do Not Resuscitate (DNR) Order written for me.
2. If I am in a critical health crisis that may not be life-ending and more time is needed to determine if I can get better, I want treatments started. If, after a reasonable period of time, it becomes clear that I will not get better, I want all life extending treatment stopped. This includes the use of breathing machines or tube feeding.
3. If I am conscious but become unable to think or act for myself and will likely not improve, I do not want the following life-extending treatment:

I acknowledge that I and my agent have been apprised of and will follow the uniform informed consent procedures and the use of standard forms to indicate consent to ECT per 18 V.S.A 7408.

Waiver of Right to Request or Object to Treatment

Part 6 is a special part that may be used by people who want their future responses to offered health treatment disregarded or ignored. You must have an agent to fill out this Part.

There may be situations in which you might be objecting to or requesting treatment but would then want your objections or requests to be disregarded. If you have had treatment in the past that scares you or is uncomfortable or painful you may be likely to say “no” when it is offered in a future health crisis. Still, you may know that this is the only way for you to come through a bad time or even survive. You understand that it is necessary and you would want it again if you had to have it. This Part will help you let your agent, and others know what you really want for yourself.

Because this is signing away a basic right that all patients have (to refuse or to request treatment) unless a court orders otherwise, you will need to give this much careful thought. You will also have to have additional signatures and assurances at the time you fill out this Part of your Advance Directive.

If you think Part 6 could apply to you and be helpful in your situation, you need to be sure that everyone involved in your care understands that you are making this choice of your own free will and that you understand the ramifications of waiving your right either to consent or to object to treatment.

Unlike other Parts of your Advance Directive, you can revoke Part 6 only when you have capacity to make medical decisions as determined by your doctor and another clinician.

For your agent to be able to make healthcare decisions over your objection, you must:

- Specify what treatments you are allowing your agent to consent to or to refuse over your objection;
- State that you either do or do not desire the specified treatment even over your objection at the time and, further, specify your wishes related to voluntary and involuntary treatment and release from that treatment or facility;
- Acknowledge in writing that you are knowingly and voluntarily waiving the right to refuse or receive specified treatment at a time of incapacity;
- Have your agent agree in writing to accept the responsibility to act over your objection;
- Have your clinician affirm in writing that you appeared to understand the benefits, risks, and alternatives to the proposed health care being authorized or rejected by you in this provision; and
- Have an ombudsman, recognized member of the clergy, attorney licensed to practice in Vermont, or a probate court designee affirm in writing that he or she has explained the nature and effect of this provision to you and that you appeared to understand this explanation and be free from duress or undue influence.

NAME _____ DOB _____ DATE _____

PART 6: WAIVER OF RIGHT TO REQUEST OR OBJECT TO FUTURE TREATMENT

I hereby give my agent the authority to consent to or refuse the following treatment(s) over my objection if I am determined by two clinicians to lack capacity to make healthcare decisions at the time such treatment is considered:

1. I do want the following treatment to be provided, even over my objection, at the time the treatment is offered:

I do not want the following treatment, even over my request for that treatment, at the time the treatment is offered:

2. I give permission for my agent to agree to have me admitted to a designated hospital or treatment facility even over my objection.

Yes No

3. I give my agent permission to agree that my release from a voluntary admission for mental health treatment may be delayed even over my objection for up to four days so that a decision can be made regarding whether I meet criteria to be involuntarily committed.

Yes No

4. I hereby affirm that I am knowingly and voluntarily waiving the right to refuse or request specified treatment at a time of incapacity, and that I understand that my doctor and one other clinician will determine whether or not I have capacity to make health care decisions at that time. I know that I can revoke this part of my Advance Directive only when I have the capacity to do so, as determined by my doctor and at least one other clinician.

Organ and Tissue Donation

Part 7 of your Advance Directive allows you to state your wishes about organ and tissue donation.

In some European countries organ donation is mandatory unless the patient has objected in advance. In our country permission for organ donation is not assumed and often the family or next of kin are approached for donation at the time of an accidental or unexpected death. If there are any objections from the family, those reservations and refusals are honored. Consequently, many people who may have wanted their organs and tissues to benefit others do not get to have their wishes honored. That is one reason why there is such a shortage of usable organs and tissues for transplant in our country and why many people die waiting for needed transplants.

Although you may elect to have an agent or your family decide on organ and tissue donation, your organs are more likely to be of use for others if you make the decision yourself.

You should also note your wishes on your license and attach the sticker showing that you wish to be an organ donor. You do not have to have an Advance Directive form filled out to show evidence of your wishes to be an organ donor, particularly if your license identification includes your wishes about organ donation.

If you wish to donate your body for research to a medical school you will need to contact that institution to make separate arrangements in advance of your death and fill out forms supplied by that institution.

NAME _____ DOB _____ DATE _____

PART 7: ORGAN AND TISSUE DONATION

I want my agent (if I have appointed one) and all who care about me to follow my wishes about organ donation if that is an option at the time of my death. (Initial below all that apply.)

I wish to donate the following organs and tissues:

any needed organs or tissues

major organs (heart, lungs, kidneys, etc.)

tissues such as skin and bones

eye tissue such as corneas

I wish my agent to make any decisions for anatomical gifts (or)

I wish the following person(s) to make any decisions:

I desire to donate my body to research or educational programs. (Note: you will have to make your own arrangements through a Medical School or other program.)

I do not wish to be an organ donor.

Disposition of My Body after Death

Part 8 allows you to give directions about funeral arrangements or related wishes about the final disposition of your body after you die.

You can use the section to appoint an agent for making these arrangements, or you may say that family members should decide. You can give directions to whoever is in charge.

You can list important information about any pre-need arrangements you have made with a funeral home or cremation service or about the location of family burial plots.

You may indicate your permission to have an autopsy done on your body after your death. An autopsy is generally not suggested or needed when the cause of death is clear. If an autopsy is suggested, it could be helpful to your agent or family to know your wishes about having an autopsy performed. Autopsies may be required in cases where abuse, neglect, suicide or foul play is suspected.

PART 8: MY WISHES FOR DISPOSITION OF MY BODY AFTER MY DEATH

Other instructions: _____

(For example, you may include contact information for Medical School programs if you have made arrangements to donate your body for research or education.)

2. Agent for disposition of my body (select one):

I want my health care agent to decide arrangements after my death; if he or she is not available, I want my alternate agent to decide.

I appoint the following person to decide about and arrange for the disposition of my body after my death:

Signature and Witnesses

Congratulations! You have done much good work in sharing your wishes through the completion of your Advance Directive.

Be sure that your wishes as stated in the Parts you have chosen to fill out make sense when read together as a whole. If there is a question of conflicting wishes, be sure that you have indicated your priorities.

When you sign your Advance Directive, you must have two adult witnesses. Neither witness can be your spouse, agent, brother, sister, child, grandchild or reciprocal beneficiary. A change in Vermont law has made it a little easier to have witnesses available to assist you. For example, your health care or residential care provider and their staff now can be witnesses of Advance Directives.

If you are in a hospital, nursing home or residential care facility when you complete your Advance Directive, you will need a third person's signature to certify that he or she has explained the Advance Directive to you and that you understand the impact and effect of what you are doing. In a health care facility, this third person may be a hospital designee, a long-term care ombudsman, an attorney licensed to practice in Vermont, a clergyperson or a Probate Court designee. (Note: If you decide to include Part 6 when you are in a health care facility, you must be sure that the third person who signs your document in that Part is not affiliated with or employed by the health care facility.)

Distribution of Copies of this Document

It is a good idea to make sure that your agent, your family, your personal physician and your nearest hospital or medical facility all have copies of this Advance Directive. List the people to whom you give copies at the end of Part 9 of the Advance Directive form. This will make it easy for you to remember to tell all of these people if you decide to cancel, revoke or change this document in the future.

By late 2007 you will also have the option to have your advance directive scanned into an electronic databank called an Advance Directive Registry where you, your agent, your health care facility and others you designate, can get copies of your advance directive (including special personal handwritten instructions) immediately.

Registration Policy

An advance directive is a legal document that conveys a person's wishes regarding their health care treatment and end of life choices should they become incapacitated or otherwise unable to make those decisions. The Vermont Advance Directive Registry is a database that allows people to electronically store a copy of their advance directive document in a secure database. That database may be accessed when needed by authorized health care providers, health care facilities, residential care facilities, funeral directors, and crematory operators. For more information, visit: <http://healthvermont.gov/vadr/>.

1. To register an advance directive via mail, fax, or email, the registrant must complete and send the Registration Agreement form along with a copy of the advance directive document to:
Vermont Ethics Network Fax: 1-802-828-2646
61 Elm Street, Suite 1 Email: VADRSupport@vtethicsnetwork.org Montpelier Vermont 05602 Email submissions must be in PDF format.*
2. Registrants who upload their document via user upload do not need to complete the Registration Agreement or Authorization to Change form. The necessary agreements and authorization will be completed during the on-line upload process.
3. Upon receipt of the Registration Agreement and attachments, the Registry will scan the advance directive and store it in the database along with registrant identifying information from the Registration Agreement. The Registry will send a confirmation letter to the registrant along with a registration number, instructions for using the registration number to access documents at the Registry website, a wallet card, and stickers to affix to a driver's license or insurance card. The registration is not effective until receipt of the confirmation letter and registration materials is made by registrant.
4. Registrants should share the registration number from the wallet card with anyone that should have access to their advance directives: for example, the registrant's agent, family members, or physician. Anyone may access a person's advance directive using the registration number. Additionally, when the registration number is not readily available, an authorized health care provider can search the Registry for a specific person's advance directive using a registrant's personal identifying information.
5. The registrant is responsible for ensuring that:
 - a. The advance directive is properly executed in accordance with the laws of the state of Vermont.
 - b. The copy of the advance directive sent to the Registry, if a photocopy of the original, is correct and readable.
 - c. The information in both the Registration Agreement and advance directive documents is accurate and up to date.
 - d. The Registry is notified as soon as possible of any changes to the advance directive or registration information by completing and submitting an Authorization to Change form with the changes appended, or preferably, with an updated copy of the advance directive to the Registry.
6. Initial registration as well as subsequent changes and updates to the registration information or the advance directive documents are free of charge.
7. The Registration Agreement shall remain in effect until the Registry receives reliable information that the registrant is deceased, or the registrant requests in writing that the Registration Agreement be terminated. When the Agreement is terminated, the Registry will remove registrant's advance directive from the Registry database, and the file will no longer be accessible to providers.
8. Only the Registry can change the terms of the Registration Agreement.
